1D: Chair's Report

Chair Sloan shared a personal story about her childhood and how she became an educator. She expressed her gratitude and respect for those who teach children every day and stated that she was grateful for the opportunity to help children through her work on the Commission and collaboration with other partners in the education community. She also expressed her appreciation to her students and colleagues at UC Santa Barbara and thanked Commissioners for the important work that they do for children.

1E: Executive Director's Report

Executive Director Sandy thanked Chair Sloan for her years of service on the Commission and introduced new consultants Sarah Barwani and Stephanie Morgado from the Professional Services Division. She also informed the public that staff is developing a process for programs to submit a proposal to offer the new PK-3 early childhood credential program which includes three new standards areas in literacy, diversity, equity and inclusion, and early mathematics.

1F: Commission Member Reports

Commissioner Davis provided an update on the CTA (California Teachers Association) and the National Board Resource Center at Stanford University cohort program for Black, Indigenous, and People of Color (BIPOC) candidates who are pursuing National Board Certification.

Commissioner Francois thanked Commissioner Jackson for her commitment and service to the students of California. She expressed her appreciation to Chair Sloan for her leadership and guidance at the University of California (UC) and for being an exemplary model of the work and dedication needed to develop and lead transformative, research-based and innovative high quality teacher education. She reported that the UC Board of Regents appointed Katherine Newman as UC Provost and Executive Vice President for Academic Affairs, effective January 2023. She provided updates regarding the 21st Century California School Leadership Academy, the Environmental and Climate Change Literacy Project, and the initiative of the California Community School Statewide Transformative Assistance Center (S-TAC). Lastly, she reported that Alison Towery was selected as Executive Director to lead the UC-CSU California Collaborative for Neurodiversity and Learning.

Commissioner Pavri congratulated Commissioner Jackson on her upcoming retirement and thanked Chair Sloan for her impactful leadership over the years. She also shared information about the Equity and Excellence Certificate Program available through the Center for Transformational Educator Preparation Programs (CTEPP).

Commissioner Browne thanked Commissioner Jackson and Chair Sloan for their work and expertise on the Commission. She acknowledged the collaboration between the Commission, the CSU, and the Community Colleges to transform preparation of PK-3 teachers. She also shared her excitement for the return of student teachers to in-person classroom settings.

Commissioner White-Smith acknowledged the citizens of the Kumeyaay nation and thanked them for their stewardship and contributions to the region. She also recognized the Commission's efforts to make it possible for all teachers to engage in work that is authentic and accurate historically. She introduced Robin Duncan, Dean Chair of the AICCU from California Baptist University, and Allison Smith, who represents the AICCU Ed faculty. She reported on the collaboration between the University of San Diego and San Diego State University to support San Diego Unified School District in developing a pathway for more minoritized teachers into the field through the residency program. She shared that the University of San Diego received a grant from the San Diego Foundation to support the development of the Black Ingenious Initiative. Finally, she thanked Commissioner Jackson and Chair Sloan for their thoughtfulness and advocacy for the work of the Commission.

Commissioner Jackson thanked everyone for their kind words. She also thanked Superintendent Tony Thurmond, and her colleagues and manager, Kristin Cruz Allen, at the Teacher and Leader Policy Office of the California Department of Education for their encouragement and support. She acknowledged Chair Sloan for her strength, passion and leadership and also recognized the California Teachers Association.

Commissioner Heredia reported on her attendance at the California School Boards Association 2022 Annual Education Conference in San Diego.

Commissioner Cardenas reported on his attendance at a Career Technical Education fair held by his district for 8th grade students.

1G: Liaison Reports

Haydee Rodriguez, State Board of Education Liaison, thanked Chair Sloan for her leadership and contributions to the work of the Commission and expressed her appreciation to Commissioner Jackson for her contributions to public education. Liaison Rodriguez reported that Linda Darling-Hammond, President of the California State Board of Education, was awarded the 2022

Yidan Prize for Education Research. Lastly, she reported on her attendance at the State Board's November 2022 meeting.

Commissioner Davis reported on his attendance at the October 2022 Committee on Accreditation meeting.

Mers Tran, Commission Student Liaison, thanked Commission staff, the interview panel, and Commissioner Davis and expressed excitement for being on the Commission. Student Liaison Tran spoke about their personal background and perspective on education and shared their interest in adding their voice and input at the table.
